If have trouble downloading the App, you may need to change the account settings to charge the purchase to your credit card instead of being charged to your phone bill.

- From your BBM app world
- Click on the "My Account"
- Payment Options
- Pick "Credit Card" and fill in the information as required.

Try re-downloading the App again, it should work.

-Add the web address you obtained from the Woolwich Wild Web Site.
-Add Display Name..You will need this name to add to your phone in the Yahoo Options

Get the above Web Address with the following instructions

From the bottom of your teams web page on the Woolwich Wild Web Site, click the subscribe link

	Practice Woolwich Mem (McLeod)

You can use MyCal to combine schedules from multiple teams.
Or, Subscribe to multiple calendars at once.

Step 1: Get The Address to the Calendar Feed

This website has a single address which is used to generate the calendar feed, and that address needs to have some incoming parameters which tells the feed what team(s) schedules to return. The basic format for this address is webcal://(your domain name)/webcal.ashx?IDs=(one or more team IDs).

Each team in the site has an ID which you can see in the address (URL) when you navigate to that team's site. So if you know the ID(s) of the team(s) you want to create the calendar feed for, you can manually type them into the feed's address. However, to make it easier to configure the feed's address, click here to open a special page for doing so (opens in a new window).

Click on the link to get to the page required for your ical web link
